

Chicago HOME + GARDEN

DESIGN DOSE

CHICAGO DESIGN,
DELIVERED FRESH

Aug 27, 2009

Divine Consign

Oak Park will soon have a new consignment shop for upscale home furnishings and accessories. Kellie Scott, the owner, is accepting consignments at 111 N. Oak Park Ave. She says she's already got a ton of great finds, from a 1920s vintage art deco dining set to ultra modern tables and couches. Of particular interest: some 80 pieces from a modern furniture store that closed in Wisconsin recently. These brand-new pieces are at least 50 percent off their original price. She's also got a $7,000 sectional that a North Shore interior designer is looking to unload because it's the wrong color—it's just $1,999. Divine Consign is open from noon–5 p.m. through the end of this week to accept consignments. It will be open to shoppers beginning Friday or Saturday, Scott says.

—JAN PARR

PHOTOS COURTESY BECCA'S BLOG AT LIVEHEREOAKPARK.COM